

Best Practice in Board Evaluation and The Board's Role in Determining Culture

Date:	Monday, 10 th July 2017
Time:	1330 hrs - 1700 hrs
Venue:	Rosewood Room, Level 1, Swissotel Merchant Court, 20 Merchant Road, Singapore 058281
Registration:	Tuesday, 6 th June 2017 to Wednesday, 5 th July 2017
Seminar Fee:	$160.50 (Inclusive of 7% GST)

About Lintstock

Established in 2002, Lintstock is a London-based advisory firm specialising in Board performance evaluations. With a client base comprising many of the world's largest companies, Lintstock has considerable experience working with Boards in a wide variety of organisations internationally, within a broad range of sectors.

Lintstock also acts as a policy advisor to UK Parliament's Corporate Governance Group and is regularly commissioned to undertake research on behalf of the Group. Recent publications include 'Elevating the Role of the Company Secretary', '10 Years of Reviewing the Performance of UK Boards', and most recently, 'The Board's Role in Determining Culture'.

Speaker's Profile:

Merlin founded Lintstock in 2002 and has more than 14 years' experience of delivering Board evaluations for a variety of UK and international clients. He also leads Lintstock's research capacity and regulatory relations.

Merlin Underwood, Partner of Lintstock

Oliver joined Lintstock in 2004 and has primary responsibility for the firm's client engagements. He has more than 12 years' experience of facilitating Board evaluations for a wide range of organisations internationally.

Oliver Ziehn, Partner of Lintstock

Neil joined Lintstock in 2012 and has experience of facilitating Board evaluations for a broad range of UK and international clients, including listed companies and regulated subsidiaries. He has worked on most of Lintstock's Board evaluations over the past 5 years.

Neil Alderton, Associate of Lintstock

Philip joined Lintstock in 2012 and supports the firm's business development, client relationships and new markets. He regularly facilitates Director discussions on the output of Board evaluations and presents on topical governance issues to audiences in the UK and overseas.

Philip Mackie, Associate of Lintstock

Organised by:

Click here to register

